

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

Proclamation

WHEREAS, with the spirit of appreciation, the people of Greenville, South Carolina honor the American Institute of Architects, its 77,000 members; the Construction Specifications Institute, its 15,000 members; and the 281,000 Americans who work in architecture firms for their many contributions to our nation, to South Carolina and to this city; and

WHEREAS, through their work, American architects have expressed the richness of our nation's heritage and the vitality of its spirit. They have combined advances in building technology with design innovation to enliven our cities and communities and improve our citizens' quality of life; and

WHEREAS, the architecture profession in Greenville, with the support of the American Institute of Architects and the Construction Specifications Institute, has been especially vigilant: in its stewardship of many great architectural and historic treasures and in its efforts on behalf of building healthy, safe, livable, and sustainable communities that enrich the lives of people in every walk of life; and

NOW THEREFORE, I, Knox H. White, Mayor of the City of Greenville, do hereby proclaim April 2008 as in the City of Greenville. I call upon the people of Greenville and all City departments to participate in the activities scheduled throughout this month and visit the traveling exhibit of America's Favorite Architecture on display at the Hughes Main Library. All of these events are proudly sponsored by the Greenville Section of the South Carolina Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, the Greenville Chapter of the Construction Specifications Institute and the Greenville County Library System.

ARCHITECTURE MONTH

Signed and Sealed this 24th day of March, 2008.

KNOX H. WHITE
Mayor
